GMSTEK Announces X-1FBO Partnership with FlightBridge

Owner of Advanced X-1FBO System Announces That Its FBO Users Will Now be Able to Access the FlightBridge Trip Logistics and Booking Platform Through X-1FBO

CORAL GABLES, FL October 15, 2018 – GMSTEK, LLC (“GMSTEK”) today announced a partnership with FlightBridge that will enable users of GMSTEK’s advanced X-1FBO Management and Payment Processing System (“X-1FBO”) to access FlightBridge’s innovative trip logistics booking platform through X-1FBO.

The X-1 products are next generation, cloud-based, easily scalable, mobile and desktop-enabled management and payment processing systems for Fixed Base Operators” (“FBOs”). FBOs are at the center of a dynamic ecosystem, and the high-tech X-1 products are designed to enable FBOs to drive growth and profitability.

From within X-1FBO, X-1FBO users will be connected seamlessly to the FlightBridge network of more than 6,000 Flight Department, Charter, Pilot and Broker users as well as to its vast network of trip logistics service providers and partners. Through this integration, X-1FBO users can directly import and update relevant flight and FBO service request information via FlightBridge, as well as easily book hotels, car rentals, catering and other service requests at pre-negotiated or discounted rates. With GMSTEK’s X-1POS, a vastly simplified point of sale system, Fixed Base Operators (“FBOs”) which use X-1POS and FlightBridge will be able generate invoices directly from FlightBridge for their customers, eliminating the time consuming and error-prone recreation of invoices so common today. Aircraft operators will also be able to request, view and pay for services easily and efficiently through FlightBridge at FBOs using X-1FBO technology.

According to Jim Wiley, CEO, “We are committed to bringing long needed automation to the General Aviation marketplace. X-1 products are already becoming the industry standard for management and payment processing systems. Our partnership with FlightBridge will enable our FBO users and their customers to have easy, convenient access to the broad FlightBridge network. Continued Wiley, “FBOs and their customers demand the best. We are committed to providing them with the best through our X-1 products and partnerships which provide superb quality, unparalleled value and easy access.”
